

ANNAMMAL COLLEGE
OF EDUCATION FOR WOMEN

Anti Human Trafficking Club

Anti Human Trafficking Club

The Anti-Human-Trafficking Club of Annammal College of Education for Women educates students about the issue of human slavery, modern slavery, and give them opportunities to make meaningful contributions to prevent human trafficking. It aims to spread awareness on Human Trafficking and thereby creating a socially committed generation

Objectives of AHTC

- To create awareness among students and teachers about human trafficking
- To encourage the students to fight against the atrocities in the society
- To make students aware of the issues of exploitation in labour camps
- To educate about local trafficking trends and the practices of local traffickers

Activities of AHTC

- Work with Child line and help them in the process of communication with the rescued children
- Involve students to identify the cases of Human Trafficking
- Work within and outside the campus in creating awareness, rescue and reintegration of trafficking survivor in partnership with NGOs
- Organise programmes that addresses the modern day slavery stop forced labour, illegal organ transplant and sexual exploitation of women and children

Coordinator

Dr.(Mrs.) S. Emimah
Assistant Professor of Mathematics

Student Representative

Ms. Rachel Rose Megra. P
B.Ed First year Student