

ANNAMMAL COLLEGE
OF EDUCATION FOR WOMEN

The Electoral Literacy Club

The Electoral Literacy Club (ELC) of Annammal College of Education for Women was launched on National Voter's Day 2016. Its aim is to prepare the prospective teachers of the college for citizenship by educating them about voting rights, electoral processes and the importance of democracy.

Objectives of Electoral Literacy Club

- To educate the prospective teachers about voter registration, entire electoral process and related matters by providing them well-designed attractive resources and experiences
- To familiarize and prepare the students to be well-informed of their voting rights and duties
- To make the prospective teachers fully confident of how, when, where, what and why of democratic election
- To familiarize and educate students about EVM and VVPAT
- To utilize the potentials of ELC members of the college for carrying the electoral literacy in communities

Activities of ACE – ELC

- Demonstration of the working of EVM and VVPAT
- Awareness programme on voting rights and duties
- Organizing workshops and competitions on electoral participation

Nodal Officer :

Dr. S. Jeyaparvathi
Assistant Professor of History

Coordinator :

Mrs. D. Shunmuga Selva Sivasankari
Assistant Professor of Mathematics

Student Representative :

R. Rajeswari
B.Ed. First year Student