

ANNAMMAL COLLEGE
OF EDUCATION FOR WOMEN

History Club

The History Club of Annammal College of Education for Women was established in the year 2008 and from this day it has been striving towards excellence in all its activities.

Objectives

- To expand the civic competence of the prospective teachers
- To conduct various activities to promote critical thinking and social understanding
- To organise programmes that focus on the balancing of individual, social and national needs
- To foster patriotic feelings and international understanding among prospective teachers
- To help students to take up valuable lessons from the history of the nation and the world

Activities

- Organizing competitions and contests
- Arranging guest lectures to address the needs of learners on contemporary social issues
- Conducting community based activities to impart civic training
- Screening movies on historically important personalities
- Observing days of national and international importance

Coordinator :

Dr.S.Jeyaparvathi
Assistant Professor of History

Student Representative:

Ms. G. Ponjency
B.Ed. First year Student