

ANNAMMAL COLLEGE
OF EDUCATION FOR WOMEN

Student Council

A Student Council is a representative structure through which students in the college can become involved in the affairs of the college. Student Council also assists in planning and development of various cultural, sports, social, recreational and other educational interests of students in the institution. The Student Council provides scope to contribute in the development of students' leadership skills, program planning and volunteering. The purpose of the Student Council is to give students an opportunity to develop leadership by organizing and carrying out college activities.

Objectives

- To encourage students to be involved in the activities of the college
- To provide for and promote student extra-curricular activities and social events
- To make the students participate in the development of the institution
- To promote friendship and respect among pupils
